

U. S. SENATOR
INDICTEDDietrich of Nebraska is Charged With Bribery.

ALSO POSTMASTER FISHER

Says That He Accepted Money and Property For His Recommendation.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 17.—The United States grand jury last night returned true bills against United States Senator C. H. Dietrich and Postmaster Jacob Fisher of Hastings, Neb., charging them with bribery and conspiracy.

The indictment against Senator Dietrich charges that he accepted money and property in consideration of his recommending Fisher for appointment as postmaster at Hastings. That against Fisher charges him with making an agreement with Senator Dietrich by which the former was to pay him property and money amounting to $1,300 for securing Fisher the appointment. The senator is in Washington.

William Dutton, a hardware merchant of Hastings, Neb., was among the witnesses today. He testified that he acted as intermediary in all the alleged transactions between the indicted men. The jury stood 19 to 1 for the indictments.

ALBANY SAILS FOR SEOUL.

To Induce Koreans to Open Port of Wiju.

Washington, Nov. 17.—A cablegram received at the navy department from Rear Admiral Evans, commanding the Asiatic station, announces the sailing of the protected cruiser Albany from Yokohama for Chemulpo, the port of Seoul, the Korean capital, where United States Minister Allen is proceeding to further the request of the United States for the opening of the world's commerce of the Korean port of Wiju, on the Yalu river. It appears from the records of the navy department that Wiju was selected by the United States as a prospective port instead of Yonampo because, lying forty miles above the latter port, which is at the mouth of the Yalu river, the country within that limit will likewise be opened to traffic and neutralized, a substantial gain in the extent of the market afforded.

The United States naval officers at first fixed upon Tatung as the second Manchurian port after Mukden to be opened instead of Antung, but it appears that Japan had previously made the same demand and had secured its allowance in its treaty with China, so that a request from the United States was unnecessary, and Antung was chosen instead. The naval officers who examined the reach of the Yalu river, in which Antung lies on the Chinese side, found that its position strategically and from a trade point of view would be vastly improved were the port of Wiju on the opposite side of the river neutralized by being made a free port, and this is now the object of Minister Allen's visit.

The long expected trade treaty between the United States and China which was negotiated in Shanghai by the American commissioners and the Chinese representatives has just reached Washington and is now under examination by the state department officials. It is the intention to submit the new treaty for ratification to the senate at the earliest possible moment, so that it is certain to go in during the special session. The provisions of the treaty have been so completely outlined in the statements given out by the state department and in the cable press dispatches from China that nothing new of interest is found in the document just received.

Panama Representatives Declined to Talk Today.

New York, Nov. 17.—The special commissioners of the republic of Panama arrived this morning on the steamer City of Washington from Colon. They declined to talk and could not say whether they would go direct to Washington or not.

THERE IS FRICTION.

Japanese Immigrants and Koreans Have Clashes.

Fort Arthur, Nov. 17.—The friction between Japanese immigrants and the Koreans is growing in southern Korea owing to the number of Mikado's subjects who are settling in the country. Many collisions are reported, in which several persons were killed and a number injured. The Japanese press has suppressed all news of these conflicts.

Congratulations Due All Around.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—The Kaiser's physician today announced that his patient is making such satisfactory progress toward complete recovery from the effects of the recent operation for polypus that no more bulletins will be issued.

MUST BE PLAINLY MARKED.

Central Vermont R. R. Makes Important Move.

General Freight Agent J. E. Dairymple of the Central Vermont R. R. has sent out the following order:

Owing to difficulty experienced at transfer points and destination stations by reason of the present method of marking shipments of granite, and the numerous claims which this company and our connections are called upon to consider for delay and frequently loss of shipments improperly marked, we are obliged to give notice to our patrons that commencing December 1st, 1903, our agents at granite shipping stations will refuse to accept shipments of less than carload lots, unless each stone is plainly marked with the name of consignee and destination,—this marking to be legibly made in writing ink either on the crating or boxing, or on the stone itself when not crated or boxed.

OF AGE NOV. 20TH.

"The China Man" will Celebrate His 21st
Anniversary of Business in Burlington.

Burlington, Nov. 17.—M. D. McMahon, one of the most enterprising business men in this city and widely known as "The China Man," from his connection with "China Hall," the largest China importing house in this section, will celebrate his twenty-first business anniversary this week, by cutting his stock "wide open" for the benefit of his customers in thanksgiving for their patronage for nearly a quarter of a century.

His large store (China hall in Masonic Temple) will be closed all day Friday of this week in preparation for the sale, which begins the next morning and continues till Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 25th.

His many friends admire the pluck of the boy of 1881 and congratulate the success of the man of 1903, and they know what to expect when the "China Man" announces a sale.

DIED WHILE SETTING TRAPS.

Body of George Sylvester of West Enosburg Found After Long Search.

West Enosburgh, Nov. 17.—George Sylvester, a young man living on a farm about two miles from this village, left his home Friday morning to set traps for muskrats. When he did not return home at night search was made for him but no trace of him was found. The search was resumed the next morning and an older brother, Nelson Sylvester, found him on the bank of a small stream lying with his head in the water. Death was not caused by drowning. The young man had been in poor health for some time and had had several fits and it was quite evident that he was attacked by a severe one while setting a trap on the bank of the stream and had fallen forward down the bank and died.

A LADY IN TROUBLE.

Is Explanation of Richmond's "Mysterious Woman."

Richmond, Nov. 16.—It is expected that the "mysterious woman" who has been staying with Mrs. A. J. Hall will leave town some time in the night. Her baggage was taken to the depot this evening but nothing is given out about her plans or destination.

There is no longer any suspicion that the woman is a man in disguise, although her identity is concealed as far as possible. It is generally thought that she is a young lady not far from here that is in trouble and sought to hide her identity on that account.

MITCHELL RECAPTURED.

Barre Man Who Escaped From a Montpellier Officer.

Montpelier, Nov. 17.—John Mitchell of Barre, who escaped from Officer Durkee at Burlington, while being taken to Rutland for 108 days' sentence, has been recaptured at East Pepperell, Mass., where he was arrested for a drunk.

Mitchell was traced by means of his coat which was ordered shipped from Barre to Greenfield, Mass., to Schenectady, N. Y., and then to East Pepperell, Mass. Chief McMahon has gone to the latter place to get him and will take him to the house of correction.

MANY POLICEMEN WERE OUT.

Cars Running in Chicago With Their Protection.

Died Before Arrival of Physicians,
Leaving Widow and Two Children.

Rutland, Nov. 17.—John McGarry, aged 60 years, was killed at the Hughes slate quarry at Granville, at 8.30 o'clock this morning, a large stone falling on his head. He was brought home but died before the physicians arrived. He leaves a wife and two children.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Ellen Holsworth of Northfield Found Dead.

Northfield, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Ellen Holsworth died at her home on North street at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, after an illness of a few hours. She was about seventy years of age and lived alone. Her son-in-law, Joseph Wood, of Montpelier, arrived in town on Saturday evening to make a short visit and upon arriving at the house found the doors all locked; after some exertion he forced open a window and entered by that means. Mrs. Holsworth was found unconscious on the floor and the oil stove burning where she had been preparing her supper, so it is thought that she could not have lain there for any length of time. Medical aid was summoned and the case pronounced a stroke of apoplexy. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Wood of Montpelier.

DEATH OF DANIEL HYDE.

Kid Comes Suddenly to Well Known Stratford Attorney.

Stratford, Nov. 17.—One of the most prominent citizens of this town, Daniel Carpenter Hyde, died suddenly Saturday night. He had seemed unusually well and jolly during the day and was retiring at 11.30 o'clock when he suffered an attack of apoplexy and fell dead across his bed. Mr. Hyde was admitted to practice in the circuit and supreme courts of Michigan in 1870. In December of the same year he was admitted to the bar of Orange county. Since that time he had practiced in Stratford.

He served as state's attorney two years, December 1894-96.

A widow and one son survive him, also several brothers. Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock Tuesday forenoon with burial at Stratford.

CLOSE BRATTLEBORO SCHOOLS.

The Epidemic of Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever Becomes Alarming.

Brattleboro, Nov. 16.—The situation in Brattleboro in respect to contagious diseases is becoming alarming. New cases are developing every day. Ten cases were reported during the past week, making 32 within the past week.

Of the cases reported 18 have been diphtheria and 14 scarlet fever. Dr. H. D. Holton, secretary of the state board of health, and Dr. L. H. Waterman, the Brattleboro health officer, held a conference today, when it was decided to close the schools tomorrow night for two weeks.

FOR QUINLENCity Refuses to Repay
His Taxes.

NO AID FOR MRS. TILDEN

A Stock Company to Provide for Granite Exhibit at St. Louis, and Meeting Dismisses That Article.

The city meeting called last evening to consider the request of W. C. Quinlen to have a portion of the taxes paid by him to the city during the past four years returned brought out about a hundred voters last evening who, after hearing the remarks of Mr. Quinlen's attorney and of city officials and others, voted not to repay Mr. Quinlen.

The meeting organized by selecting Dr. J. Henry Jackson as moderator. Under Art 2, "To see if the legal voters of the city of Barre will vote to pay to W. C. Quinlen his claim for taxes unjustly and illegally collected from him for the years 1899, 1900, 1901 and 1902." D. M. Miles, to bring the matter before the meeting, moved that a warrant be drawn on the city treasury to repay Mr. Quinlen's taxes unjustly and illegally collected for the past four years. The motion was seconded by Wm. Donald.

James McDonald wished to know on what grounds Mr. Quinlen claimed the taxes had been illegally collected from him. Mr. Wishart, attorney for Mr. Quinlen, explained for the latter. He went into the history of the case, of the appraisal of the Quinlen block in 1898 for $15,000, of the meeting of the board of civil authority in August of that year, when the assessors stated to the board they had made an error of $2000 in the appraisal—an error of fact Mr. Wishart claimed—and of a reduction of the appraisal by $1000. In view of the statements of the assessors Mr. Wishart claimed the board of civil authority should have reduced the appraisal $2000 to $13,000. By their not doing so there ought to be no question as to what the voters should do. There had been an error and the voters had a right to rectify any wrong to a citizen.

H. W. Scott, who was a member of the board of Civil Authority in 1898, told of the action of the board when it made the reduction in that year. He asserted the assessors did not claim at that time it was an error of fact, but an error of judgment.

A. G. Fay spoke on the legal aspects of the case. The board of civil authority had heard the case, it had heard Mr. Quinlen and it had heard the assessors. The case was decided by the board and that decision was final. There was no going back on it.

Wm. Donald thought it queer business. He cared nothing for the law, he wanted justice done Mr. Quinlen.

City Attorney J. W. Gordon said the claims of Mr. Quinlen that he was unjustly and illegally taxed were untrue. Mr. Quinlen or his attorney have not claimed the property was taxed more than its true value.

E. R. Davis questioned Mr. Wishart if he believed Mr. Quinlen had any right of action against the city. Mr. Wishart declined to state.

George Mann, while not upholding the assessors, believed the board of civil authority had done its duty.

James McDonald thought if the city was going to rebate Mr. Quinlen's taxes he was entitled to a little rebate himself. The property holders on Main street get all the improvements, while the taxpayers on the other streets are paying for them.

It was voted not to repay Mr. Quinlen any portion of his taxes.

Art. 3. To see what action, if any, the city will take in furthering the project of an exhibit of Barre granite at the St. Louis Exposition, to be held in 1904, next came up for consideration and Wm. Donald moved it be laid on the table. The motion was lost.

J. W. Gordon moved to dismiss the article, saying the city could not vote a cent to help the granite exhibit, but he believed in the project of an exhibit and he was on a paper to incorporate a company with $15,000 capital stock to provide for such an exhibit. The shares would be $25 each and he hoped every citizen in Barre would subscribe. In 1898 the exhibit at the Chicago World's fair was provided in this way. The specimens exhibited were sold and stockholders were returned a large share of their subscriptions.

It was proposed to send only monuments and designs to St. Louis that were readily saleable and when the exhibition was over to close them out and opportunity the returns among the stockholders according to their subscriptions. With this statement the article was dismissed.

Under article 4, Mrs. Carrie E. Tilden of Shirley, Mass., asked for a rebate of her taxes on the Tilden property on North Main street, where the buildings were burned in May, soon after they had been assessed. On the statement of the city attorney that he could not see any way the city council could help her the matter was dropped without action of the meeting.

Dr. C. F. Camp asked permission to address the meeting. He stated last May a pauper came to him for treatment. He found her case such he sent her to the Mary Fletcher hospital. At the hospital they would not take her until expenses were guaranteed, which would be $1 a day. He saw the overseer of the poor, who expressed himself as willing to pay $1 a day. The woman returned after six weeks and the bill followed which the overseer now refused to pay. The hospital has waited and now called on him for its pay. He wanted to know whether he should pay the bill, or would the city pay it?

It was stated the bill had never come before the city council for approval and that but one side of the story had been heard but when it did it would doubtless be paid, and it was voted that it was the sense of the meeting that the bill be paid when presented, if found true.

WHAT OVERSEER SAYS.

Woman Who Was Sent to Hospital Has Never Asked to Have Bill Paid.

A Times reporter saw Overseer of the Poor Thurston today and asked him of the case of the woman Dr. Camp spoke of in city meeting last evening. Mr. Thurston said the one in question was paid so much a month by the city for her support, that she told Mr. Thurston she expected to have to go to the hospital and would need extra money; she went to the hospital and that since her return she was paid extra sums at different times, which he supposed went to pay a part of the hospital bill.

He further stated this woman was put to work in the kitchen at the hospital for three weeks, before she was operated on and she objected to paying for this time. The bill received by him from the hospital he returned with the endorsement that he had made no agreement whatever with Dr. Camp. Mr. Thurston said that he had stated to the woman that she could have the money when she wanted it, but she objected to paying for the full time she was in the hospital.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To the City Council Lighting Committee.

Editor Times:

It seems certain that the inhabitants of High Holborn and Railroad streets do not have the same rights as the other citizens. There is at the corner of High Holborn street an electric light lamp which looks very decorative during the day, but during the evening it is never lighted at all. If the electric light company don't want to light that lamp it can be removed somewhere else and be done with it, or, if the inhabitants of the above streets are just as good taxpayers as the others, take care of that place like any of the other ones. Taxpayers of High Holborn street.

BIG VICTORY
FOR GODDARDDefeated Kimball Union
Academy

IN FIERCE FOOTBALL GAME

Local School Made Three Touchdowns
Against Team That Had Not Been Scored On.

On a gridiron covered with snow and with the players slipping and sliding as if on skates Goddard seminary administered her first foot ball defeat to Kimball Union Academy of Meriden, N. H., yesterday afternoon by a score of 16 to 0. Kimball had not been beaten this season up to yesterday, and, in fact, no team had scored a point against her. Goddard did the trick but had to play her fiercest and best game.

The contest was by far the best of the season and the good crowd of spectators got their money's worth. Although pushed back and beaten the visitors did not give up for a minute, fighting doggedly against a better team, until the last call of time. Both on the offense and the defense Goddard played splendidly, her defensive game being especially good. So severely did the local team jump into the play when Kimball had the ball that the latter really had no chance to score. Time and again Goddard took the ball away on downs or forced Kimball to punt.

The latter fumbled several times and some Goddard player was generally on hand to take advantage of the misplay. In fact it was ability to take advantage of Kimball's errors that allowed the home team to make more than one touchdown, although there was no question of the result of the game after the first ten minutes of play. Several times players were off side and penalties were imposed, and two or three of the players got so anxious that they fell to scrapping. They were separated and no player was ruled out of the game.

Cannell, full back for Goddard, received a severe cut in the head during the latter part of the second half but pluckily finished the game. He, with Capt. Dunham and the two ends, Wright and Turner, played the best for the home team.

The game opened with Milne kicking to the visitors who made short gains and then were penalized 20 yards for being off side. The ball was punted to Berry, who caught and ran 20 yards, but as he went out of bounds the ball was taken back 15 yards. Goddard then set to work and never stopped until the goal line was crossed. Cannell hurried the line well and Dunham skirted right end for a long run of 20 yards and Milne was pushed across for the first score. He failed to kick the goal.

Milne kicked off again and Goddard got the ball on a fumble. By steady line plugging the ball was carried to Kimball's three foot line, where the visitors made a fine stand and took the ball on downs. Jenny was sent into the line for a five yard gain and the half closed with the score 5 to 0 for Goddard.

Goddard kicked off in the second half and immediately held for downs. It was a short way to the visitors' goal then, and the line was crossed chiefly through the effective work of Capt. Dunham. He ran 15 yards, was tripped, started again and again fell. But he was up and over the line with a K. U. A. player hanging to him before the ball was finally down. Milne kicked the goal.

Again Milne kicked off and Goddard repeated the performance of holding Kimball and taking the ball, this time only 20 yards away from the goal line. After a few rushes Dunham again crossed the last chalk line with the final score of the game. No goal was kicked.

Kimball received the ball on the kick-off but could not gain. They punted to the middle of the field and Dunham ran 25 yards. After that the home team could not puncture Kimball's line and the ball went to the other side on downs. But K. U. A. could not gain and a poor punt gave the ball to Goddard on her opponent's 25-yard line, where the game ended with the score 16 to 0 for Goddard.

The line-up was as follows:

Goddard.	K. U. A.
Clark	C. Prince
Berry	Q. Shattuck
Cannell	F. B. Jenney
Dunham	L. H. Chesley
Milne	K. H. Bates
